The Portchester Horse & Pony Association was founded in 1974 as a campaigning group to maintain and promote safe riding in the Portchester area. Since then it's grown to become one of the most popular Pony Clubs in Hampshire. PHPA is a non-affiliated club, we aim to cater for all horse lovers who ride principally for pleasure and for competition. The club also raises money for different charities. In 2007 we donated to The West Sussex Air Ambulance and the Brook Hospital. In 2006 we made donations to The South East Hants Horse & Pony Rescue Society, PATS and Canine Partners.

PHPA has over 150 members living and keeping their horses in the Hampshire area. Members range from small children to older adults and the club caters for all abilities, from very novice riders to professionals, with equal enthusiasm. Some of the original members in the 70's are still members now and encourage their children and grandchildren to participate in the club activities.

During the year PHPA holds numerous events, covering a wide range of equine activities. We have an enthusiastic committee who work hard to ensure that each event is well organised and the atmosphere is welcoming and friendly. Our programme is both comprehensive and diverse and includes:

- Regular instruction in dressage, show jumping and cross country
- Competitions:- Showing, Show Jumping, Gymkhana Games & Le Trots Trec
- Qualifying classes for the Veteran Society and the Royal London Show
- Non-competitive events, e.g. Sponsored & / or Fun Rides, & Pony Camp
- Talks, trips, visits and social events

If you are a member, you'll also receive our newsletter, which gives details of future events and training, a full update of all club activities, reports on recent events, advertisements, national and local information of interest to members and special offers for members, e.g. discount at certain equestrian outlets. Members also enjoy reduced entry fees for all of the events held throughout the year.

To find out more about The Portchester Horse & Pony Association, either call Jo Preston the Chairperson on 02392 617841 or Sally Edwards on 02392 596491

The British Driving Society

As a national, not for profit, equine organisation, the British Driving Society (BDS) is committed to providing user-friendly, cost-effective products and services for the whole equestrian world.

We are therefore offering substantial discounts to all equine welfare and rescue organisations whose employees need training and assessment for the new Horse Transport Certificate.

THE BRITISH DRIVING SOCIETY LTD.

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

CHAIRMAN : JOHN A PARKER

'SWINGLETREE', WINGFIELD, NR. DISS, NORFOLK, IP21 5QZ

TEL: 01 379 384 496 FAX: 01 379 388 314

New Horse Transport Laws – Do you need a Certificate ?

Provided you can assemble a minimum group size of 5 people, BDS Assessors will travel to you, which also saves the travel and accommodation costs of sending your staff away, as well as solving the problem of providing staff cover for your stables whilst they are away on a course.

This letter gives details of the costs and discounts, and you can download more information plus a free syllabus from the BDS website (www.britishdrivingsociety.co.uk), follow the links to 'Transport'.

From 5th January 2008, anyone involved in the transport of equines (horses, ponies, donkeys and mules) in connection with an economic activity, will need a Certificate of Competence.

The new legislation, called the Welfare of Animals (Transport) Order 2006, Statutory Instrument No 3260/2006 – known as ' WATOs' – is designed to protect the welfare of horses before, during and after transport.

An ' economic activity' applies to anyone who

- Transports horses commercially, ie: horse transport firms
- Makes their living from horses, ie: riding schools, racehorse and livery yards, professional showjumpers, dressage riders, breeders, etc
- Is involved with the transport of horses as part of their employment, ie: grooms
- Is involved with transporting horses for sale or slaughter

It does not apply to a person taking their privately-owned horse in their own horsebox/trailer to an event.

The British Driving Society (BDS) is one of only 4 DEFRA-Approved Awarding Bodies for the new Certificates of Competence. We are the national, not for profit organisation responsible for all harness horse driving in the UK, and are committed to providing user-friendly, cost-effective products and services to the whole horse world. You do not need to be a BDS Member, nor to have any involvement with harness horses, to use our services.

A typical commercial training organisation charges £120 - £180 for WATOs training and assessment, plus £15+ for the syllabus. The BDS charges £65 for the Attendants/Grooms Certificate, and £75 for the transport Driver's Certificate, and the syllabus is free ! Furthermore, BDS trainers and assessors will travel to any suitable venue at no extra charge, providing you can assemble a group of 5 or more candidates.

To help you decide if you need a WATOs Certificate, we have a list of very helpful Q&As, put together with DEFRA, plus a free download of the BDS WATOs syllabus on the BDS website – www.britishdrivingsociety.co.uk, or you can telephone the BDS Office on 01473 892 001 during normal office hours.
