Understanding Equus - www.understandingequus.co.uk

Debbie Reilly, Equine Trainer & Behaviour Specialist, Oak Tree House, Hightown Hill, Ringwood, Hants BH24 3HE.

Tel/fax: 01425 473151, mobile: 07715 732278. Email: info@understandingequus.co.uk

Debbie can arrange tailor made training sessions to suit all needs, whether it is giving your horse the ideal start in life, developing your current relationship, or if you are experiencing behavioural problems with your horse.

Individual Consultations and Coaching Sessions can be arranged within your home environment for initial assessments and ongoing support.

Tailor-made Workshops: Debbie will come and work with a number of individuals and their horses on their own premises. Ideal for ground-work issues like leading, loading, farrier preparation and clipping problems.

Intensive Training Weeks: Designed for the horse and rider who are looking to learn, develop their understanding and work through a training issue together. Making use of the idyllic training facilities and New Forest area, come and work with Debbie on a one-to-one basis with your horse over a series of five mornings, gaining real insights into your relationship with your horse and see what amazing changes can happen in such a short time.

Tue 17 July: Own a Pony Day, 10.00am – 3.00pm. Course at Merrist Wood Campus, Guildford College. Suitable for children 8 years and over who want to learn about owning a pony. Electric Fencing Stolen: Wed 17/Thu 18 Jan from field in Clanfield, approx. 100 green posts plus 700m white electric tape. Victim has advised police, but also wanted to warn other horse owners in the hope they maybe able to take the precaution of possibly using wooden posts that would be more difficult to remove and could easily be painted with a postcode, also by marking the tape with a post code. If anyone in the area is offered these items to buy, please could they inform the police or get in touch with Hampshire Horse, email hampshirehorse@hotmail.com
